Rejoice!

"I'll bet she will tell him how the cow ate the chicken!" The young lady's fervor did not keep her grandmother from laughing on the other end of the phone. Stopped in mid-thought, she said, "Why are you laughing?" After composing herself, her grandmother explained that the saying was "how the cow ate the cabbage," not "how the cow ate the chicken."

Her funny bone was turned upside down, not by the thought of bedlam in the barnyard, but by the stating of the completely unexpected. Humor happens when the unexpected occurs. Check it out the next time someone tells a good joke. The punch line will catch you off guard and hopefully you will laugh out loud (lol). Laughter is good medicine. We need to do so more often.

Like when life includes the completely unexpected. We anticipated that something would work out a certain way, and events unfolded oppositely. Rather than stress, why not laugh? The unexpected turn of events means that God has to take over (actually He was in charge all along) and we can enjoy the ride to wherever He may be taking us.

Recently I was with someone in our new church expansion who stated, "I don't even know where I am going around here about half of the time." I reminded them that they had just described much of life. We don't know what will happen. We can't determine what will happen. But we can rest and even laugh while it happens. Since God is control, I am not. I may as well enjoy the journey.

"In his heart a man plans his course,
But the Lord determines his steps." Proverbs 16:9

Stop stressing and begin rejoicing in the presence of the unexpected. Otherwise, as Andrea stated in staff meeting the other day, "You will have a tough row to hoe!" Yes, we laughed. Yes it is supposed to be "tough row to hoe." Those of us who spent some time in a cotton patch know that saying well.

No hill for a swimmer,
Earl

Boomerang Express

Dear Church Family,
Boomerang Express - It All Comes Back To Jesus! It's Vacation Bible School time again. Preparation has begun and it is my desire to do nothing more (and nothing less) than God's direction for VBS. Could you begin now praying for VBS and continue praying during the week of VBS, June 1-5? I have recruited the best group of volunteer leaders to make this a wonderful week for the children. Prayer requests:
Pray for all leaders as they plan and prepare to do their best for VBS.
Pray for all other volunteers that will be a part of VBS.
Pray for families that will participate in VBS.
Pray for boys and girls, that they will be eager to learn about Jesus during VBS.
Thank you and G'day mate,
Andrea
